

Ministry of Education Youth and Sports

Kingdom of Cambodia
Nation Religion King

Letter of Appreciation.

To Mr. Madenjit Singh
Director of L-CDI

I would like to express my appreciation and deepest gratitude to you and your staff at L-CDI for the hard work and the Training Program to develop poor youths who are school drop outs in the provinces of the Kingdom of Cambodia.

The Ministry of Education Youth and Sports would like to Praise and Support Leadership and Character Development Institute – L-CDI for the hard work in establishing Training Centers in the provinces to develop leadership, character and life skills in the youths in the provinces in spite of facing financial difficulties.

I would like to appeal to the institutions, educational departments and other NGOs inside and outside of Cambodia to Cooperate with and Support L-CDI in cash or kind, to join them in order to contribute in the development of human resource so as to fulfill the needs in the Kingdom of Cambodia, especially among the poor people through out the provinces in the country.

I would like to convey my deepest gratitude and appreciation once again to L-CDI for its massive sacrifice and contribution and wishes LCDI happiness and success in every endeavor.

Our Sincere love to the Director Mr. M. Singh from Malaysia.

Phnom Penh 27 / 08 / 2001
Deputy Prime Minister.
Minister of Education
Signed
